

A hand-drawn sketch in pencil on a spiral-bound notebook page. The scene depicts a classical architectural setting. On the left, a column with a fluted shaft and a decorative capital stands. To its right, a figure with a long, flowing robe and a tall, pointed headdress stands facing right. In the center, a sunburst with radiating lines is positioned above a set of steps leading to an arched opening. To the right of the arch, another column with a fluted shaft and a decorative capital stands. A figure with a long, flowing robe and a tall, pointed headdress stands facing left. The word "Hemisphäre" is written in a white, serif font across the center of the image, overlapping the sunburst and the arch. The background is a simple sketch of a sky with wavy lines. The entire drawing is rendered in a light, sketchy style with some color highlights in red, blue, and yellow.
